Important Information About Procedures to Open a New Account

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means to you: When you open an account, we will ask your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

Authorization and Signatures (Both signatures required for a joint account)
By signing below, I/we acknowledge receipt of and agree to the terms and conditions of the Membership and Account Agreement, Truth-in-Savings and Fee Schedule, Funds Availability Policy and Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement, Privilege Pay disclosure and any amendments the credit union makes to these documents from time to time. HCU is authorized to check my/our account, credit, identity and employment history and to obtain a consumer report from third parties, including credit reporting agencies to verify my/our eligibility for the accounts and services requested in connection with this application and for any update, renewal, or extension of credit or services. If a Visa card(s) is/are approved and issued, I/we agree that by signing, using or permitting another to use the card(s) I/we will be bound by the cardholder disclosure included with the credit card(s).
Under Penalties of Perjury I Certify That: 1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and; 2. I am not subject to backup withholding because (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and 3. I am a US citizen (including a US resident alien).
Certification Instructions: You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return.
